

Santa Fe Opera Club

RULES & REGS AT A GLANCE

- The Opera Club traditionally purchases seats in the mezzanine for performances on Wednesday through Saturday, but not for Opening Night, Apprentice Scenes Concerts, or Monday and Tuesday performances.
- Club members may reserve two seats per performance. A Club member may bring a guest, but a guest may not use an Opera Club seat without being with a Club member.
- The total number of tickets available to each membership may not exceed 10 tickets during the 2022 season.
- Requests for Club seats must be made by email to <OperaClubSeats@gmail.com>. Tickets may not be requested by phone or in person.
- Members may request tickets for Club seats for July performances beginning June 15 and for August performances beginning July 15. Requests must be made at least 72 hours prior to the performance. Club tickets will be distributed by email at least 48 hours before the performance as equitably as possible.
- Opera Club Member Cards are to be used only by Club members. Members should present their Opera Club card for entry to the Opera grounds on any performance evening, entry to the Wyncote Opera Club, or to charge at the bar.
- Members may run a tab at the Wyncote Opera Club bar for the season. Bar tab bills will be mailed to Club members to reimburse the Opera Club after the season.
- Members must accompany their guests into the Wyncote Opera Club.
- While in the Wyncote Opera Club during a performance, members should refrain from conversation or other conduct that might disturb members of the audience. Club members are responsible for the conduct of their guests.
